

The Tony DeBlase Memorial Scholarship Fund

This scholarship was created by Aubrey Hart Sparks to support LGBTQ and allied students entering the fields of sex education, sex therapy, or other fields that further the understanding of human sexuality.

About this Scholarship Fund:

Established in remembrance of Tony DeBlase, a renowned educator and leatherman, this scholarship was created to promote knowledge, acceptance, and preservation of culture and community.

In addition to memorializing Tony, fund creator Aubrey Hart Sparks' goal is to influence generational change in order to create a more accepting, loving community for all. Ultimately, Aubrey hopes to preserve the legacy of Tony DeBlase and promote greater understanding of human sexuality through education.

Aubrey Hart Sparks lives in Tacoma, Washington.
